

I oppose lifting the ban on cross-ownership of media. The public is entitled to more than one opinion in the media. That is the whole idea of free press. Allowing the wealthiest corporations to control all forms of major media in one geographical area just because they can buy them up is tantamount to repealing freedom of the press.